EAT

Hot Spot

Since opening last fall, George has graced every "Best of..." dining list in town. Critics and locals alike can't seem to get enough of chefs George and Katie Brown's eclectic nouveau American menu that includes innovative takes on traditional favorites like lamb T-bones and pan-roasted chicken. Be forewarned—the hip Lovers Lane eatery offers a simple yet elegant menu that changes frequently, so don't expect the same thing twice. But rest assured that whatever's on the menu will be a sure-fire palette pleaser. 7709 Inwood Road, 214-366-9100.
