EAT

By George...and Katie

A first-look at the chic new eatery by Dallas' dynamic culinary duo

Change is good. That's the philosophy of chefs George and Katie Brown, whose new venture George thrives on the premise. The posh eatery features a constantly changing menu of imaginative, modern American cuisine that capitalizes on fresh seasonal ingredients. One would expect nothing less from George Brown who, in 1997, was named among the nation's top 10 new chefs by Food and Wine magazine. And while the signature selections may be a constant revolving door, expect a solid showing in attentive service, consistent winners among the selections on the wine list and a sleek, sophisticated environment in which to enjoy it all. 7709 Inwood Road, 214-366-9100.
